Ad-hoc Promotion in Archeological Survey of India

1248. SHRI M. KADHARSHA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what is the number of Administration Officers and Junior Accounts Officers who got ad-hoc promotion in the Archaeological Survey of India during 1986 and 1987;

(b) whether the vacant post of Junior Accounts Officers which resulted from the ad-hoc promotion of Administration Officer was not filled up from Head Clerks or W.A.Is. and if not, what are the reasons therefor;

(c) whether the Archaeological Survey of India propose to offer promotion to the other staff who have put less than one year service in each category, as it has been done in the case of Administration Officers;

(d) whether it is a fact that Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes candidadtes who have not completed the minimum requisite years of experience are given ad-hoc promotion in violation of Government Orders when suitable eligible candidates in general category are available;

(e) what are the reasons for which the cases of such Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes candidates could not be kept in abeyance under the carry forward system; and

(f) whether it is a fact that the meetings of DPC for the post of Junior Accounts Officer are being held piece meal and not for the whole year in violating of Government orders?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) Three Officers were promoted as Administrative Officer and one as Junior Accounts Officer on ad-hoc basis in 1986. No ad-hoc promotion was made in 1987.

(b) Only two posts of Junior Accounts Officer fell vacant. One has already been filled and the other one is in the process of being filled.

(c) There is no such proposal.

(d) One Scheduled Tribe candidate was given ad-hoc promotion without completion of minimum years of experience, which is admissible under the rules.

(e) The vacancy for Scheduled Tribes candidate was not carried forward as the available candidate was found fit for promotion by the Departmental Promotion Committee.

(f) The post of Junior Accounts Officer is a selection post. Meetings of Departmental Promotion Committee are held as and when vacancies are available. There is no violation of Government Orders.

Delay in deciding pension cases of Delhi Teachers

1249. SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that teachers and education officers etc. under Delhi Adiministration and Delhi Municipal Corporation receive their pension and other retirement benefits after a considerable delay;

(b) if so, what steps are taken to see that like Central Governmcent employees, they also receive their pension, after getting their cases settled at the time before retirement; and

(c) whether pending cases will also be decided without any further delay?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) to (c) As per Delhi Municipal Corporation, there is no delay in payment of pension
